

2nd Swiss Animal-Environmental Ethics Network Meeting

Time	Name & Affiliation	Title
9:30-9:40		Welcome
9:40-10:05	Damien Delorme, Gérald Hess, Esteban Arcos University of Lausanne	Ecology in the First Person: Theme and Variations
10:05-10:30	Nicole Lühti University of Zurich	Research on Humans and Animals - a Comparison of Human Research and Animal Experimentation Law
10:30-10:55	Kirsten Persson, Christian Rodriguez Perez University of Basel	The “Evolutionary Scale” in Swiss Animal Welfare Law: Survival of the Fittest?
10:55-11:20	Break	Café La Pomme (ground floor)
11:20-11:45	David Rozen University of Fribourg/ Pardubice	Attitudes Toward Nature and Destructive Environmental Behavior: The Dialectic of Extractivism and Romanticism and Beyond
11:45-12:10	Dominic Roser University of Fribourg	Economic Growth and Animal Ethics
12:10-12:35	Markus Wild University of Basel	Wild Animal Suffering: Epistemological Assumptions and Monitorism
12:35-13:50	Lunch Break	Café La Pomme (ground floor)
13:50-14:15	Tristan Katz University of Fribourg	Reducing Wild Animal Suffering Effectively Requires a Coherent Theory of Change
14:15-14:40	Simon Kräuchi and Ivo Wallimann-Helmer University of Fribourg	Taking Limits of Societies Seriously: Distinguishing Entitlements for Adaptation and Loss and Damage Action Fairly
14:40-15:00	Break	Café La Pomme (ground floor)
15:00-15:25	Ilias Voiron University of Fribourg/ Jean-Moulin-Lyon-III	Grounding Individual Duties of Climate Justice on General Individual Duties of Justice
15:25-15:50	Friderike Spang University of Lausanne	The Role of Compromise for Climate Policy Support

15:50-16:15	Fabienne Huber University of Fribourg	Comparative Interdisciplinary and Educational-Theoretical Meanings of the Environment and Natural Relationships in the Context of the Climate Catastrophe
16:15-16:40	Break
16:40-17:05	Nico Müller University of Basel	The Problem of Opportunity Costs in Animal Research
17:05-17:30	Anna Deplazes Zemp University of Zurich	Valuing nature as 'an Other' in natureculture
18:00	Drinks & dinner	Les Menteurs (Passage du Cardinal 1)