

Workshop with Peter Gatrell:
“Writing Refugees into Global History, 1900 to the Present”
5th May – 6th May 2021

Programme

5th May

10.15–12.00 Public Lecture (Part of the MA Course Europa nach dem Krieg 1945–1950)

Peter Gatrell (University of Manchester)

“Writing Refugees into Global History, 1900 to the Present”

13.15–16.00 Workshop (Doctoral Programme Migration and Postcoloniality Meet Switerland)

13.15–14.30

Project Presentation by Jonathan Pärli (University of Fribourg)

“Asylum from Below: Sanctuary in Switzerland and the US in the 1980s”

14.45–16.00

Project Presentation by Marino Ferri (University of Lucerne)

“How ‘Student War Victims’ Became ‘Refugee Students’: Shaping Categories in Post-war Switzerland, 1945–1955”

6th May

09.00–11.00 Workshop (Doctoral Programme Migration and Postcoloniality Meet Switerland)

Text Discussion of

Peter Gatrell, Refugees – What’s Wrong with History? In: Journal of Refugee Studies 30 (2016) 2, p. 170–189.

Peter Gatrell, Raw Material: UNHCR’s Individual Case Files as a Historical Source, 1951–1975. Work in progress – please don’t cite.