

SYMPOSIUM FOR THE 200TH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE BIRTH OF NIKOLAI GOGOL / MYKOLA HOHOL

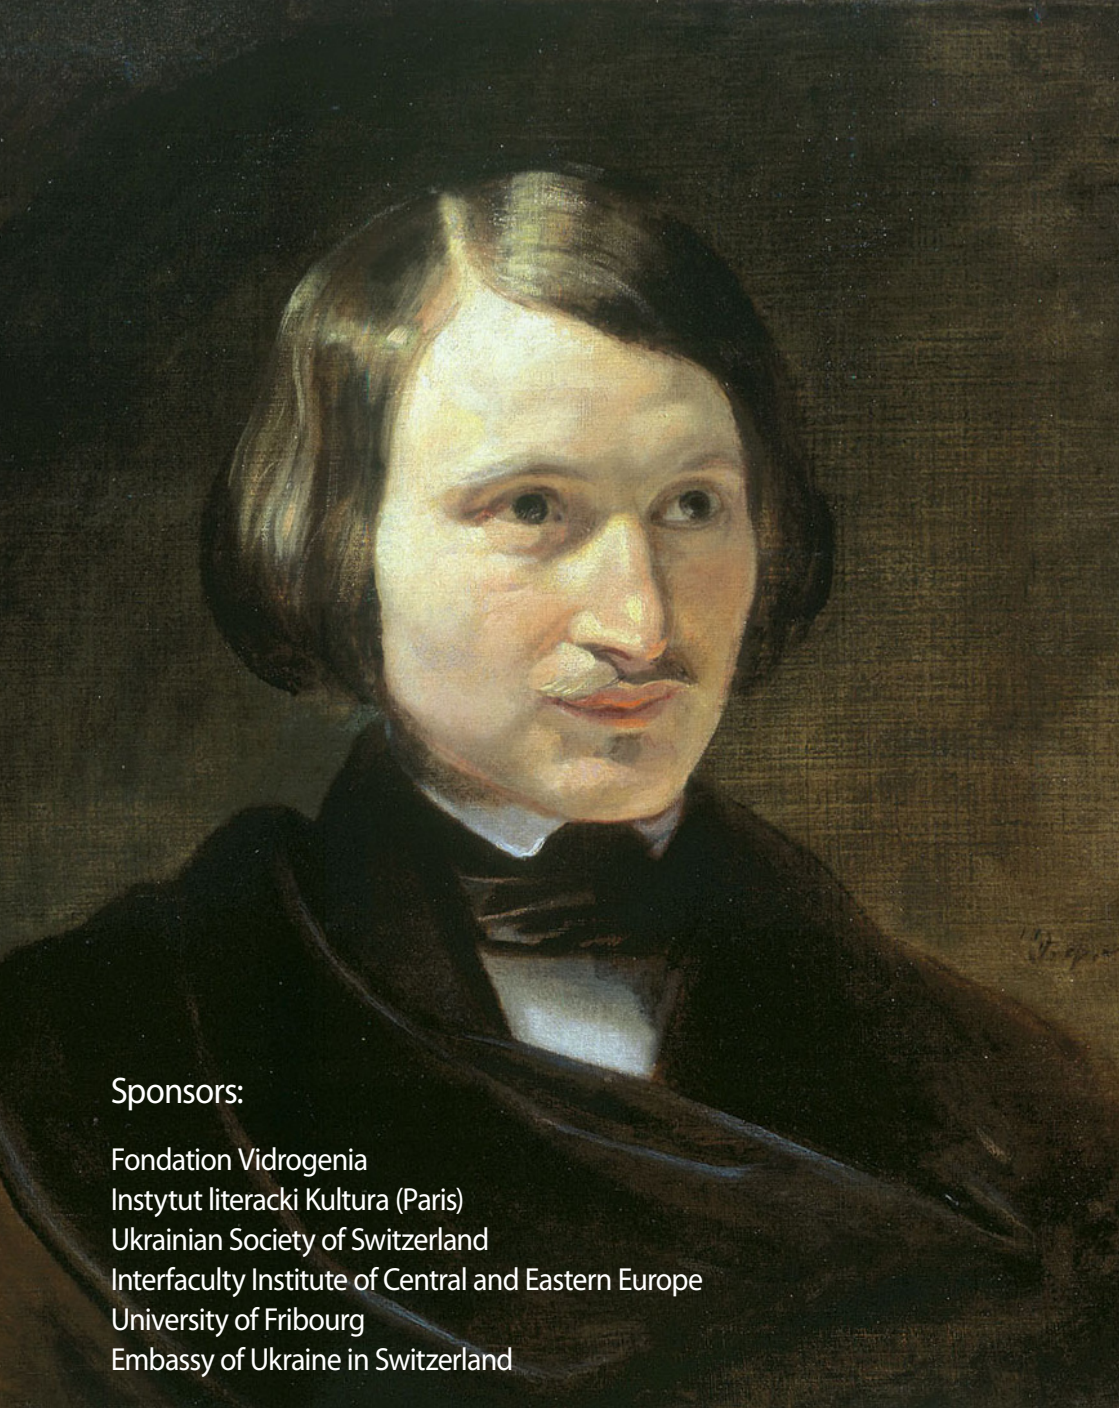

30 October 2009

University of Fribourg, Switzerland

Room 2029 (Salle de cinéma), Miséricorde, University of Fribourg

- 09:15 Opening Remarks:
Andrej N. Lushnycky – President, Ukrainian Society of Switzerland
Jens Herlth - Interfaculty Institute for Central and Eastern Europe,
University of Fribourg
- Greetings:
Guido Vergauwen – Rector, University of Fribourg
Ihor Dir – Ambassador of Ukraine to Switzerland and Liechtenstein
- 09:30 Morning Session:
Taras Koznarsky, University of Toronto, Canada
«МЫ, МОСКАЛИ» On Gogol, Ethnic Stereotyping, and Ukrainian-Russian Cultural Reciprocity in the 1830s-40s
- 10:15 Coffee Break
- 10:35 Edyta Bojanowska, Rutgers University, USA
Gogol and His Contemporaries: The Price of Admission to Russian Culture
- 11:20 Tamara Hundorova, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine
Gogol and the „Little Russian“ Kitsch
- Chair: Edward Swiderski, University of Fribourg
- 12:15 Lunch
- 13:30 Afternoon Session:
Alexander Woell, University of Greifswald, Germany
The Fantastic in the Context of European Gothic Novel at the End of 18th Century and “Portret”
- 14:15 Oleh S. Ilnytzkyj, University of Alberta, Canada
Gogol’s Nationality and the Modelling of Russian Culture
- Chair: Jens Herlth, University of Fribourg
- 15:00 Discussion Session:
Mykola Riabchuk, Ukrainian Center for Cultural Studies, Kyiv, Ukraine
Gogol as a Symbol of Russia-Ukrainian (Dis)unity: Recent Commemorations and Current Controversies
- 16:00 Apéritif and musical program
- 17:00 End of the Symposium

Sponsors:

Fondation Vidrogenia

Instytut literacki Kultura (Paris)

Ukrainian Society of Switzerland

Interfaculty Institute of Central and Eastern Europe

University of Fribourg

Embassy of Ukraine in Switzerland